MEMORANDUM FOR THE HEADS OF
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

His Majesty Faisal ibn Abd al-Aziz Al-Saud, King of Saudi Arabia, will arrive in Washington on Tuesday, June 21, 1966, for a State visit to the United States.

King Faisal will arrive at the White House at 11:30 a.m. on that day where there will be a brief ceremony. At 12:00 noon King Faisal and President Johnson will head a parade leaving the White House by the Southeast Gate, proceeding east on Hamilton Place to 15th Street, south on 15th Street to Constitution Avenue, east on Constitution Avenue to 9th Street, north on 9th Street to Pennsylvania Avenue where the motorcade will be joined by a military escort. The entire procession then will move northwest on Pennsylvania Avenue to 14th Street, north on 14th Street to New York Avenue, southwest on New York Avenue to Pennsylvania Avenue, west on Pennsylvania Avenue to Blair House where the parade will terminate about 12:25 p.m.

It is desired that as many Government employees as possible have the opportunity to extend their greetings to the King of Saudi Arabia. The heads of the Departments and Agencies shall excuse from work those employees whose services can be spared without charge to annual leave for such time as is required to greet His Excellency Faisal ibn Abd al-Aziz Al-Saud, King of Saudi Arabia, on June 21.

In excusing employees the time along the route of procession and the location of employment should be taken into consideration.

By direction of the President.
